

Efe Erdem

TROMBONIST / COMPOSER / PRODUCER

THE MUSIC

Modern jazz, funk & soul.
Afro-inspired grooves.

Groove and melody sit side by side in Efe's music. His trombone leads the way, with arrangements that give the band room to stretch out and improvise.

NEW ALBUM

Original music in production.
Planned for spring 2027.

ABOUT

Efe Erdem is a Turkish-born, Rotterdam-based trombonist, composer and producer. His original music draws on modern jazz, funk and soul, with Afro-inspired grooves at its core. Melodic writing and improvisation shape the sound, alongside a strong sense of rhythm.

He trained at Hacettepe University Ankara State Conservatory before studying jazz trombone at Codarts Rotterdam, where he now teaches. His career spans international touring, recording and large-ensemble work. He is currently developing a new album of original music, provisionally planned for spring 2027.
